

Who said "I am not going to follow a course which will allow anyone to write a comparable book about this time, The Missiles of October" (98)? (From Thirteen Days, pgs. 89-106)

- Robert.
- Barbara Tuchman.
- Prince von Bulow.
- JFK.

What was the name of the first ship boarded at the blockade? (From Thirteen Days, pgs. 63-88) 2.

- John Pierce.
- Kremlin.
- Marucla.
- Bucharest.

Which two countries in Africa did JFK seek support from during the missile crisis? (From Thirteen Days, pgs. 89-106) 3.

- Canary Islands and South Africa.
- Guinea and Senegal.
- Egypt and Ethiopia.
- Algeria and Kenya.

How many ships either stopped or turned back before reaching the blockade? (From Thirteen Days, pgs. 35-61) 4.

- 4.
- 10.
- 14.
- 25.

Who informed the President about the presence of Soviet missiles in Cuba? (From Thirteen Days, pgs. 106-150) 5.

- Robert.
- John McCone.
- Theodore Sorensen.
- McGeorge Bundy.

What century produced our Constitution? (From Thirteen Days, pgs. 106-150)

- Eighteenth.
- Nineteenth.
- Twenty-first.
- Twentieth.

7.

What did Dobrynin say the Cubans resented when Robert meets with him after the U-2 was shot down? (From Thirteen Days, pgs. 63-88)

- U.S. democracy.
- Violation of Cuban air space.
- Socialism.
- The Bay of Pigs.

8.

When the Soviet Union refused to acknowledge the blockade, how often were low level flights conducted over Cuba? (From Thirteen Days, pgs. 63-88)

- Once a day.
- Five times a day.
- Every two hours.
- Every hour.

9.

Who sent messages praising Russia and castigating the U.S.? (From Thirteen Days, pgs. 35-61)

- Ted Sorensen.
- Bertrand Russell.
- Fidel Castro.
- David Ormsby Gore.

10.

Why did the Assistant for National Security Affairs wait to inform the President about missiles in Cuba? (From Thirteen Days, pgs. 106-150)

- In order to check facts.
- He did not want to admit it was happening.
- To let the President get a good night's sleep.
- To buy time.

11.

What does the change in attitude from the letter received on the 26th and the letter received on the 27th suggest? (From Thirteen Days, pgs. 63-88)

- Desire for war.
- Deception.
- Soviet confusion.
- Translation mistakes.

12.

What was different about the letter received on the morning of October 27th from the letter received October 26th? (From Thirteen Days, pgs. 63-88)

- Less aggressive.
- More cooperative.
- More apologetic.

- More formal.

13.

What is one reason that the President may not include Congress in his decision making? (From Thirteen Days, pgs. 106-150)

- The Congress is too divided.
- Need for secrecy.
- Distrust of opponents.
- The President does not require advice.

14.

Who said "we are now in an entirely new ball game" (74)? (From Thirteen Days, pgs. 63-88)

- Robert Kennedy.
- Anderson.
- McNamara.
- JFK.

15.

What did Eisenhower create in order to pre-associate Congress with the Presidents decisions to move militarily? (From Thirteen Days, pgs. 106-150)

- Ex Comm.
- Freedom of Information Act.
- Quemoy-Matsu.
- Congressional committees.

16.

Who wrote the Afterword for Thirteen Days? (From Thirteen Days, pgs. 89-106)

- Arthur Schlesinger, Jr.
- Richard Neustadt and Graham Allison.
- David Schoenbrun.
- Theodore Sorensen.

17.

Which country does Robert identify that originally doubted the U.S.'s position regarding Cuba? (From Thirteen Days, pgs. 63-88)

- France.
- Great Britain.
- Germany.
- Brazil.

18.

What did Dean Acheson believe the blockade was? (From Thirteen Days, pgs. 106-150)

- The only answer.
- The right move.

- The path to nuclear war.
- A delay tactic.

Why did JFK change the line of interception for the blockade? (From Thirteen Days, pgs. 35-61) 19.

- To tighten the line.
- To buy time.
- For safety.
- To show force.

Who was the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation at the time of the Cuban Missile Crisis? (From Thirteen Days, pgs. 63-88) 20.

- Ronald Reagan.
- John Scali.
- J. Edgar. Hoover.
- Dwight D. Eisenhower.